Continuing Medical Education
Assessing the New Landscape for Oral Healthcare Providers

The purpose of this 2-day conference is to explore the new landscape of dentistry for today’s oral healthcare provider. The conference will bring together a multidisciplinary group of nationally and internationally recognized alumni and scholars representing all fields of dentistry to engage in discussion about the effects of the legislative climate changes on the practice of dentistry. Participants will learn the keys to enhancing and expanding their dental enterprise, how to avoid coding errors and increase profitability while decreasing overhead costs. Presented by the Continuing Dental Education Advisory and Planning (CDEAP) Committee and sponsored by the Meharry Medical College School of Dentistry.

We work. We provide for our family. We enjoy our lives. We save. And, because we are blessed, we look for ways to help others.

Meharry Medical College has been at the forefront of helping others since 1876. Our mission is, and always has been, to meet the health care needs of those who need it most.

It takes the generosity of those who appreciate our mission to keep producing top-notch physicians, dentists, biomedical scientists, researchers and health policy experts for a world in need.

It’s never too early to develop a well-rounded financial strategy for your family that includes your budget, a will, life insurance, retirement plans and gifts to help sustain the organizations you care about.

Meharry is available to discuss philanthropic options with you and your financial advisor that complement your path toward wealth accumulation and preservation.

For more information, contact Ruth E. Johnson, Associate Vice President for Advancement, 615.327.6045 or, via email: rejohnson@mmc.edu.

Help change the world through thoughtful philanthropy.
