

ENFORCER

Department of Campus Safety and Security

MEHARRY
MEDICAL COLLEGE
WINTER EDITION 2007

Season's Greetings From Campus Security

By: Lieutenant Theresa
McKinnon, Professional
Accountability Unit, DCSS

It is that time of year again and whether you celebrate any of these holidays or some other holiday this time of year, everyone at the Department of Campus Safety and Security (DCSS) wishes you joy, happiness and a wonderful and prosperous New Year.

To help ensure that you and your love ones have a safe and crime free holiday season, we are pleased to remind everyone of the following crime prevention tips:

- If driving, do not pack your vehicle the night before.
- If leaving your vehicle on campus notify DCSS (6254).
- Have a neighbor or friend pick-up your mail and news-paper.
- Consider taking "high value" items with you.
- Check for "close patrol services" with local police dept.

Merry Christmas

Ramadan

Diwali

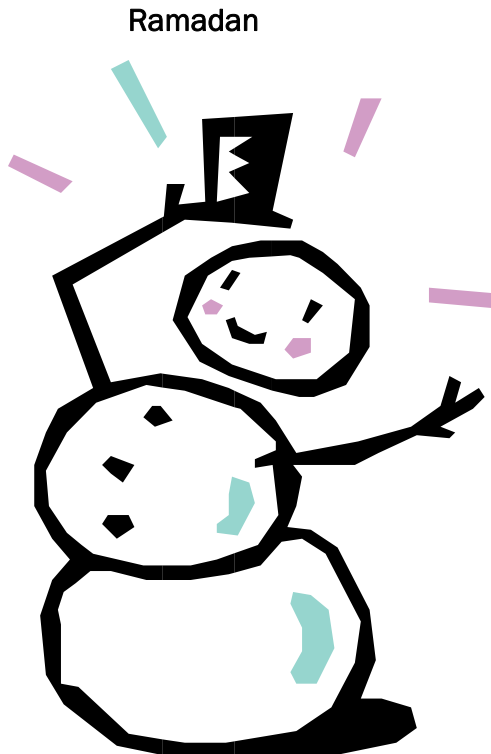

Happy Hanukah

Happy Kwanza

Happy New Year

Winter Solstice

Feliz Navidad

Holiday Stress

The holidays can be extremely stressful as the end of the semester pushes students to complete papers and projects before the deadline. Remember to set realistic expectations and recognize there will be some stress. Here are a few ways to reduce your stress during this very trying time of the year:

- Make enough time to enjoy family and friends.

Have fun and laugh!

Don't worry about the things you have no control over.

TO REPORT A CRIME CALL:
Emergency 327-6666 or 911

Non-Emergency 327-6254

Metro Police 862-8600